Dr A. Searle.

Dear Sir,

Dr Fauchey, formerly employed at the Hospital, applies as candidate, on the condition of an increased salary, being allowed, will you please, if I ask you in strict confidence, whether he is desirable enough, to make such a change? He offers to contract for 2 or 3 years. I for one, am very anxious to secure a party, as House Physician, to whom you can give your entire approval, and should consult your Judgment as all important.

Very Respectfully
Asbally as he
