

May 12, 1944.

This is not to be taken as a token fulfillment of the promise we made you to keep Grand Rounds coming more regularly. Number Six will go to Press next week - and no if's or but's about it!

This is simply to bring your mailing lists up to date or as nearly that as the flow of war permits. We know we need not explain to you that any such list is apt to be full of errors at any moment of compilation.

At any rate, it will locate your friends and colleagues, when last we heard from them.

Additions, corrections, notices of promotions will be, as always, most welcome.

So long for now. We at home send to all of you our heartfelt greetings.
